ENTRY

On May 1, 2015, the parties appeared for a previously scheduled hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") was present by counsel Robert Moye and Doressia Hutton, and also by Craig McShane, a Staff Accountant with the Enforcement Division of the SEC. Defendants Matthew Haab, Veros Farm Loan Holding LLC, and Veros Partners, Inc. were present by counsel James Bell and John McCauley. Defendant Jeffery Risinger was present in person and by counsel Ronald Elberger. Defendant Tobin Senefeld was present by counsel Jeanine Kerridge. William Wendling, the receiver proposed by the SEC, was also present in person. The Court Reporter was Jean Knepley.

Counsel advised the Court that the parties have reached an agreement regarding the terms of a preliminary injunction. The Court ORDERED the parties to file a proposed preliminary injunction order no later than May 6, 2015. Counsel also advised the Court that the parties have agreed to extensions of time by which Defendants are obligated to provide accountings, as set forth in the April 23, 2015 Temporary Restraining Order, [Filing No. 12]. Accordingly, the Court

SUSPENDS each Defendant's obligation to comply with the deadlines for providing an accounting as set forth in the Temporary Restraining Order until further order of the Court. The parties are ORDERED to advise the Court by May 6, 2015 as to the agreed accounting deadlines. Other orders agreed upon by the parties were signed by the Court in separate entries.
