1. The Interested Investors filed a Motion to Stay and Objection to Interim Distribution Methodology on or about October 21, 2016 (Filing No. 284) in which they objected to the Receiver’s proposed distribution methodology, as well as to the cost and delay associated with the Receiver’s proposed distribution methodology.

2. On November 21, 2016, the Interested Investors filed a Motion to Withdraw their Objection without prejudice and to set a briefing schedule in relation thereto. The Interested Investor’s deadline to resubmit their Objection is November 30, 2016, which date has not yet passed.

3. The Interested Investors and the Receiver are engaged in constructive, good-faith discussions to resolve the Objection and to arrive at a mutually agreeable, just and reasonable distribution methodology. They reasonably require a few additional days to complete their settlement dialogue.

4. The Receiver has represented to counsel for the Interested Investors that he will not move forward with any distributions or attempted claw backs in the interim, though he will follow-up with investors and otherwise discharge his duties.

5. Further, this Motion will not prejudice these proceedings or any pending deadlines. In the event the parties are unable to resolve their differences, the Interested Investors shall file their renewed Motion and Objection on or before December 7, 2016. The Receiver and the Securities and Exchange Commission agreed they would respond thereto on or before December 21, 2016.

6. Undersigned counsel discussed this Motion with counsel for the Receiver and the SEC and is authorized to inform the Court they have no objection to the relief sought.
