ORDER

At the parties' request, an evidentiary hearing on the United States Securities and Exchange Commission's Motion for Disgorgement, Prejudgment Interest, and Civil Penalties Against Defendant Tobin Senefeld, [Filing No. 444], was scheduled for December 19, 2017 at 1:30 p.m. Briefing on the motion is now complete, and the parties have advised the Court that they no longer request an evidentiary hearing.

The Court's preliminary review of the briefs supports the notion that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary. Accordingly, the Court VACATES the December 19, 2017 evidentiary hearing. If upon a more thorough review of the briefs the Court determines that a hearing is necessary, it will notify the parties.
